OAKLAND A's EXECUTIVE OFFICE

WALTER A. HAAS, JR.
Owner/Managing General Partner

Long considered one of the top business and civic leaders in the United States, Walter A. Haas, Jr. is the man responsible for keeping baseball in Oakland. His belief in the Oakland community, and the surrounding area, paid off with great dividends in 1989, as the A's won baseball's top prize, the world championship. The club won three consecutive American League pennants from 1988-90 and broke the franchise attendance mark in each of those seasons, attracting a club record 2.9 million fans to the Oakland Coliseum in 1990.

In addition to his duties as Owner/Managing General Partner of the Oakland Athletics, Haas is also the Honorary Chairman of the Board of Levi Strauss and Company.

Born on January 24, 1916 in San Francisco, Haas went on to do undergraduate work at the University of California, before earning his MBA at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. He has a wealth of business experience as he has headed some of the finest companies in America. Haas is a former Director of Bank of America, United Air Lines and the Pacific Telephone Company. He was also a member of the Trilateral Commission and has been a part of the Executive Committee of the National Alliance of Businessmen.

Almost equal in stature to his business experience is his dedication to the community. Commitment to the community has been a keynote of the Haas ownership of the A's and, when it comes to Walter A. Haas, Jr., this is the norm, not the exception. Currently, he is a member of the National Park Foundation and is on the Advisory Council of Reading is Fundamental, Inc. In the past, he has been a member of the Presidential Advisory Council for Minority Enterprise and a Director of the National Urban League. He has also dedicated a large portion of his time to the Federal Government, being a former member of the Presidential Task Force on International Development and a representative of the State Department (Agency for International Development) in Brazil, evaluating the government's projects of assistance to that country.

Additionally, he has been the recipient of countless awards in recognition of both his business and civic expertise. Most recently, he was honored by the World Affairs Council of Northern California in 1988.

Haas married the former Evelyn Danzig in 1940 and they have three children and six grandchildren. The Haas family resides in San Francisco.

THE ATHLETICS FRANCHISE

The 1995 season marks the Athletics 28th season in Oakland, and the 15th year under the current ownership. The Haas family took control of the club on November 3, 1980, and has since built the organization into one of the finest in all of professional sports. When they purchased the club from Charlie Finley, the Haas family inherited an organization with a depleted minor league system, a front office of six employees and a team that had lost 187 games the previous two years. Now the team on the field has won more games the past seven seasons than any club in baseball, and both the Player Development System and front office rank with the very best.

Since the 1981 season, the franchise has now won five American League West division crowns, three consecutive American League pennants (1988-90), and the 1989 world championship. Oakland was the first team to win three consecutive American League titles since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

The Athletics' history has been spiced with color and dotted with championships. From their beginnings under Connie Mack in 1901 to Tony La Russa's current version, the Athletics have won a record 10 division titles, 15 American League pennants and nine world championships. Mack managed the A's for an incredible 50 seasons until 1950 when he finally gave way to Jimmie Dykes. After nine American League pennants and five world championships the franchise was sold to Arnold Johnson in 1954, and Johnson moved the team to Kansas City for the 1955 season. After 13 seasons in Kansas City in which the club never played .500 baseball, Charlie Finley, who had entered the scene in 1960, moved the franchise to Oakland just prior to the 1968 season. In 1969 the A's won 88 games, the most victories for an A's club since 1932, and it would be the fewest wins for the team over the next six years. The A's became one of the dominant teams of the 1970's, winning three consecutive world championships from 1972-74. The franchise again fell on hard times in the late 70's but was brought back to life again when the new ownership took control of the club for the 1981 season.

THE A's IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the surrounding community has been a hallmark of the Oakland Athletics ever since the Haas family assumed ownership of the club in November of 1980. At that time, the A's made a commitment to increase their involvement in the community and to make the game of baseball accessible and enjoyable to all people. It became the A's goal to contribute to civic, youth, disabled, senior citizen and charitable organizations of the Bay Area region by utilizing their various resources.

Early in the Haas family ownership, the club established the A's Community Fund. The A's Community Fund is a non-profit organization that makes it possible for the A's to invite deserving members of the Northern California community out to the ballpark. The Community Fund relies on the support of private individuals, players, corporations and the A's annual Community Fund Golf Tournament for its support.

The Community Fund is administered by the A's Community Relations Department. With over 50 different programs, the A's have made an effort to reach out to the entire Northern California community. The following organizations are just a few of those that benefit from the A's diverse dedication to the community: East Oakland Youth Development, the Oakland Police Activities League, the Spanish Speaking Foundation, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, the United Way, the Association for Retarded Citizens and the Bay Area Alzheimers Association.

The A's Community Relations Department and the A's Community Fund reflect the club's continuing effort to build the relationship between the team and the community.

THE WALTER A. HAAS, Jr. COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Beginning in 1987, the Oakland A's instituted the Walter A. Haas, Jr. Community Achievement Award. The award is given to an Oakland Athletic for achievement on the field and in the community.

1995 OAKLAND ATHLETICS

10 TONY LA RUSSA MGR

Anthony La Russa Jr.
1995 Opening Day Age: 50
Born: Tampa, Florida, October 4, 1944
Height: 6-1 Weight: 190
Named as A's manager July 1, 1986
Contract status: Signed a three-year contract extension through the 1997 season, October 18, 1994

The 1995 season marks Tony La Russa's 17th season managing in the majors, including eight and one half years with Oakland. His honors include three Manager of the Year awards, five American League Western Division titles (including four with the A's), three American League Championships and one World Title.

Since arriving in Oakland on July 7th, 1986 Tony has helped restore the A's to one of the most powerful clubs in all of baseball, winning four of the last six American League Western Division Titles. Added to his 1983 Western Division title with the White Sox, he has won five of the last 11 A.L. West championships. La Russa's career record stands at 1253-1106, a .531 winning percentage. His win total ranks 27th on the all-time list. Among current major league managers only Cincinnati's Davey Johnson (.574), Toronto's Cito Gaston (.562) and Detroit's Sparky Anderson (.549) have a better career winning percentage than Tony. No one has managed the Oakland A's for more games (1327) or to more victories (731).

Returning to the A's was something of a homecoming for Tony. He was signed to his first pro contract by the then Kansas City A's on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut just one year later with the A's. Tony went on to play professionally for 16 seasons, but never once spent an entire year in the majors. After his stint with the Kansas City in 1963, Tony didn't make it to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs.

Tony's managerial career began in 1978, when he took over the White Sox' Double-A team in Knoxville. That year his team went 53-25, earning Tony a promotion to the White Sox' coaching staff. At the beginning of 1979, Tony was named the manager of the Sox Triple-A squad in Iowa, but that position didn't last long. On August 2nd of that year, Tony took over the helm of the White Sox, replacing Don Kessinger. Over the next seven years, he established himself as one of the top managers in the majors. His most successful year with the Sox' was 1983, when the club posted a 99-63 record, which was the best in baseball that season. He was rewarded for his effort that year by being named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers Association of America. He had the '84 Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break, before finishing 5th with a 74-88 record. Tony was relieved of his duties with the White Sox on June 19, 1986, and assumed the managers role in Oakland on July 7th, 1986.

In just his second full year with the A's, 1988, Tony managed the club to an AL West record 104 victories, the AL pennant and into the World Series. For his efforts that season he once again earned the BBWAA and The Sporting News Manager of the Year honors. From 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in baseball history a team has accomplished that feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first to win three consecutive AL pennants since the 1976-78 Yankees. The A's 1989 World Championship was the fourth for the Athletics since moving to Oakland in 1968, but Tony's first as a major league manager. On July 14, 1991 he became the 40th manager in Major League history to win 1000 games when the A's defeated Baltimore 3-2 in 11 innings. He again earned BBWAA and The Sporting News Manager of the Year awards in 1992, guiding the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, Tony passed the bar exam in December of 1979. He is one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history, the other four—Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, late 1880s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15)—are all in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Tony makes his home in Danville, California with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9-14-79) and Devon Kai (8-17-82).

18 DAVE DUNCAN COACH

David Edwin Duncan
1995 Opening Day Age: 49
Born: Dallas, Texas, September 26, 1945
Height: 6-2 Weight: 200
Named as A's pitching coach July 1, 1986

Dave arrived with Tony La Russa in July of 1986 and under Dave's guidance the A's pitching staff has been one of the best in baseball over that span. From 1988 to 1990, Dave's staff had the lowest ERA in the league, the first staff to earn that honor since the 1968-73 Orioles won six in a row. The A's topped the majors in ERA in 1990, becoming just the second AL pitching staff to lead the majors in ERA since the inception of the DH in 1973. The other staff was the 1974 A's. Duncan's 1989 staff also boasted four men with 17 or more victories, thus becoming only the third staff (1951 Indians, 1971 Orioles) since the 1927 Yankees to have at least that many pitchers win 17 or more. In addition, the bullpen has recorded a major league leading 357 saves since 1988.

Like his manager, Duncan is no stranger to the Oakland organization. Dave signed his first major league contract with the Kansas City A's in 1963, and made his major league debut with that same club in 1964. When the team moved west, Duncan went along with it, and spent 5 years in Oakland as a player. During that time, he caught some of the best pitchers of the 70's, including Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Vida Blue, Rollie Fingers and Ken Holtzman. He appeared in the American League Championship Series in 1971 and 1972, and played in the World Series in 1972. After leaving the A's, Duncan finished up his career with two year stints in Cleveland and then in Baltimore.

Duncan started his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired on as pitching coach of the Seattle Mariners. His staff that year led the A.L. in strikeouts with 1002, and finished second in the circuit with 39 saves and 11 shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join the White Sox. That year Sox pitchers led the majors in wins (99) and the A.L in fewest walks (447). Duncan's staff also had the league's Cy Young winner, LaMarr Hoyt. After a disappointing '84 season, Duncan's '85 White Sox staff posted a club record of 1023 strikeouts. During his career, Dave has been associated with six Cy Young winners. Along with Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and Hoyt, Duncan caught Blue and Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore.

Dave and his wife Jeanine have two sons, Christopher and David, and they make their winter home in Tucson, Arizona.

5 ART KUSNYER COACH

Arthur William Kusnyer
1995 Opening Day Age: 49
Born: Akron, Ohio, December 19, 1945
Height: 6-2 Weight: 205
Named as A's bullpen coach December 1, 1988

The 1995 season will be Kusnyer's seventh as the Athletics bullpen coach. Art's first season with the A's was one he will remember for a long time. In addition to coaching in the World Series for the first time, he was also a member of the winning 1989 AL All Star coaching staff. Kusnyer is no stranger to manager Tony La Russa, having been a member of La Russa's coaching staff in Chicago for over 5 years.

A catcher in his playing days, Kusnyer began his career in the Chicago White Sox organization. He played in the major leagues with the White Sox, Angels, Brewers and Royals, appearing in 139 major league games and compiling a .176 lifetime average. His major league highlight came July 15, 1973 when he caught Nolan Ryan's second career no-hitter in Detroit.

Art's coaching career began in 1979, when he closed out his playing career as a player-coach at Iowa. He was promoted to the White Sox major league staff the next season, and remained there until 1988. In 1988, Kusnyer assumed the managerial duties at Sarasota and was there when the A's and La Russa called in December, 1988.

Art and his wife, Judy, have one son (Ryan) and live in Sarasota, Florida.

4 CARNEY LANSFORD COACH

Carney Ray Lansford
1995 Opening Day Age: 38
Born: San Jose, California, February 7, 1957
Height: 6-2 Weight: 195
Named as A's coach, April 3, 1994

Longtime A's favorite Carney Lansford returns to Tony La Russa's coaching staff for a second consecutive season. Carney will once again be responsible for the A's infield instruction and performance. After a spectacular 15 year major league career Lansford retired from active play following the 1992 season and spent 1993 with his family before returning to coach in 1994.

A native of the Bay Area, Carney graduated from Wilcox High School in Santa Clara before signing his first professional contract with the California Angels in 1975. In 1978, at the age of 21, he was the Angels starting third baseman and, after hitting .294, finished third that season in the American League Rookie of the Year balloting. After three solid seasons in Cailfornia he was traded to Boston with Mark Clear and Rick Miller for Rick Burleson and Butch Hobson. In his first year with the Red Sox, 1981, he became the first righthanded hitter in 11 years to lead the American League in hitting with a .336 mark. After one more year in Boston, in which he again hit better than .300, Carney was traded to the A's for Tony Armas. For the next ten years he was the A's anchor at third base. His outstanding defense and clutch bat earned him All-Star honors in 1988 and he followed that up with his best overall season in 1989. He finished second to Kirby Puckett that year with a club record .336 average and capped the year with a brilliant post season in the A's charge to the World Championship. During the 1989 post season Carney hit .444 in eight games with a World Series homer and eight RBI. After suffering a serious injury to his left knee in a snowmobiling accident New Year's Eve 1990, he missed most of the 1991 season but returned in 1992 to captain the A's to their fourth division title in five years.

Carney played Little League Baseball in the San Jose area and as a 12 year old helped lead his team to the Little League World Series finals in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. At Wilcox High School he earned ten letters in football, basketball and baseball. Carney and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Joshua and Jared, and make their home in Baker, Oregon.

James Kenneth Lefebvre
1995 Opening Day Age: 53
Born: Inglewood, California, January 7, 1942
Height: 5-11 Weight: 190
Named as the A's hitting instructor October 18, 1993

Jim Lefebvre returns for his second consecutive season as the A's hitting instructor. Lefebvre, the A's third base and hitting coach in 1987 and 1988, returned to Oakland following the 1993 season after managing the Seattle Mariners for three seasons (1989-91) and the Chicago Cubs for two years (1992-93). At Seattle in 1991, Jim led the Mariners to their first winning season (83-79) in franchise history and in 1993 he guided the Cubs to an 84-78 record, the seventh time Chicago has finished above .500 in the last 25 years. Lefebvre's overall managerial record is 395-415.

Jim has been involved in professional baseball for 31 years, signing his first pro contract in 1962 with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. He made his major league debut in 1965 with Los Angeles and earned NL Rookie of the Year honors (BBWAA) as the starting second baseman for the World Champion Dodgers. He was an NL All-Star in 1966, finishing the year with career highs in average (.274) homers (24) and RBI (74). A member of the Dodgers' switch-hitting infield that also included Jim Gilliam, Maury Wills and Wes Parker, Lefebvre homered from both sides of the plate in a win over Cincinnati May 7, 1966. He appeared in two World Series with Los Angeles and hit .273 (6 for 22) with a homer. Jim played his entire major league career with Los Angeles and finished up in 1972 with a career .251 average.

Lefebvre's playing career continued another four years (1973-76) with the Lotte Orions of the Japanese Leagues. He served as a coach for Lotte during his fifth and final season in Japan.

His managing career began in 1978 when he guided Lethbridge (Los Angeles) of the Pioneer League. He was promoted to the Dodger's coaching staff in September of 1978 and remained with the major league club for 1979. He joined the San Francisco organization in 1980, spending the next seven seasons with the Giants. He was a major league coach (1980-82), the director of player development (1983-84), and the manager at Phoenix (AAA) (1985-86). At Phoenix he was named the PCL's Manager of the Year following both years and in 1985 was named Baseball America's Minor League Manager of the Year. Tony La Russa named Jim to his staff in 1987 and he was a member of the A's 1988 AL Championship club.

Jim and his wife, the former Ruth Endersby, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona during the winter months. The Lefebvre's have four children, Ryan, Briana, Bryce and Brittany. Jim is the co-founder of Athletes for Youth, a crusade against drug abuse. He is also the co-author, along with his father Ben, of the book "The Making of a Hitter." Prior to the 1992 season Lefebvre helped conduct a series of clinics in Holland, Italy and Czechoslovakia.

8 DAVE McKAY COACH

David Lawrence McKay
1995 Opening Day Age: 45
Born: Vancouver, British Columbia, March 14, 1950
Height: 6-1 Weight: 195
Named as A's coach, May 24, 1984

The 1995 season will mark Dave McKay's 16th season with the Oakland organization, the longest tenure of anyone on the staff. McKay will once again be in the first base coaches box.

McKay first came to the A's just before the 1980 season after nine years in the Minnesota and Toronto organizations. He played in 280 games for Oakland from 1980-1982 and spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach. He helped the A's capture the 1981 Western Division flag by hitting .288 in the latter half of the year and by belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. McKay's professional career had begun 10 years earlier when he signed a free agent contract with Minnesota for the 1971 season. He spent four years in the minors before breaking in with the Twins in a big way. He homered off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big league at-bat on August 22, 1975 and went on to hit safely in 21 of his first 22 games. After the 1976 season, the Toronto Blue Jays selected McKay in the expansion draft and he was the starting third baseman in the Jays' first game ever. He tied a major league record in 1978 by drilling two doubles in the same inning of a game. He split time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979 and opted for free agency at the end of that year. He signed with the A's as a free agent April 4, 1980.

Dave joined the A's as a coach in May of 1984 and was assigned to the bullpen to oversee pitchers warming up. He spent the balance of the '84 season and all of the 1985 campaign in the pen before taking on the first base coaching chores for 1986. After returning to the bullpen for 1987 Dave then spent 1988 in the dugout with manager La Russa before returning to the first base coaching lines in 1989.

Dave earned a degree in physical education from Columbia Basin JC in Pasco, Washington and later attended Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. Dave was born in Canada and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark. The McKay's reside in Scottsdale, Arizona with their son, Cody.

15 TOMMIE REYNOLDS COACH

Tommie D. Reynolds
1995 Opening Day Age: 53
Born: Arizona, Louisiana, August 15, 1941
Height: 6-2 Weight: 190
Named as A's coach, December 9, 1988

The 1995 season will be Tommie's seventh on Tony La Russa's staff, his third as the third base coach. He served as the bench coach in his first four seasons with Oakland. Like so many of the other A's coaches, Tommie is no stranger to the A's or the Oakland organization.

From 1986-88 Tommie was a manager in the A's minor league system, guiding the Huntsville Stars in 1988 and the Modesto A's in the two previous seasons. Prior to that, Tommie spent five seasons as a roving minor league hitting instructor for the Chicago White Sox and two seasons as a player-coach for Spokane.

Tommie began his major league career with the Kansas City A's, and played parts of the 1964 and 1965 seasons with K.C. After a stop in New York for the 1967 season with the Mets, Tommie found himself in Oakland for the 1969 season. That year, he hit a career-high .257 with 2 homers and 51 runs, both career bests. Tommie spent the 1970 and '71 seasons with the California Angels, before closing out his career with the Milwaukee Brewers.

A graduate of Lincoln High School in San Diego, Tommie and his wife, Penny, have two children, Tanya and Tommie Jr. The Reynolds spend the winter in Lemon Grove, California.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS — Second consecutive injury shortened season for the A's first baseman...after off season left heel surgery, came to spring camp healthy but the injuries arrived almost as soon as camp started and persisted through much of his season...a stiff back kept McGwire out of the first three weeks of spring games as he made his debut on March 24th...wound up with only 26 spring at bats but was in the A's opening day lineup for the seventh consecutive year and got off to a great start...hit safely in his first six games (10 for 21, a homer and 4 RBI) and wound up reaching base safely by either a hit or walk in his first 14 games...homered in three consecutive games vs. Minnesota April 15-17th and knocked in six runs during the three games...his homer on April 16th was the 232nd of his career which put Mac second on Oakland list behind only Reggie and fourth on Athletics franchise list...stress fracture of the left heel was his second significant injury of the year and it landed him on the disabled list April 30th where he remained for 43 games until June 18th...belted one of the most dramatic homers of the year July 10th at Baltimore off Lee Smith...in the final game before the All-Star break with the A's down a run in the 9th inning, McGwire's two-run homer gave the A's the win and moved them to within three games of the top spot...but just a little more than two weeks later, on July 26th in Anaheim, he reinjured his left heel...was placed on the disabled list the next day, missed the remainder of the season and eventually underwent surgery for a second time on the heel...Dr. Donald Baxter, who performed the first surgery on McGwire's heel to "release" the medial part of the fascia September 24, 1993, performed the second surgery to "release" the lateral aspect of the fascia on August 30th...on the year McGwire wound up appearing in 47 games, making 37 starts at first base which tied him with Troy Neel for the most starts on the A's at the position...had his best success vs. Minnesota pitching hitting .478 with 4 HR and 9 RBI in just seven games...over the last two seasons his heel injuries have allowed Mark to appear in 74 of the A's 276 games.

CAREER: 1984—was the A's top pick in the June free agent draft...played 16 games that year for Modesto, batting .200 in 55 plate appearances. 1985—spent the full year as Modesto's starting third baseman...showed exceptional power...batted .274 in 138 games, and slugged 50 extra-base hits in 489 at-bats (23 doubles, 3 triples and 24 homers)...also had 106 RBIs and 108 strikeouts...earned the California League's Rookie of the Year Award. 1986—started the year in Double-A Huntsville but moved up to Tacoma June 6th and then up to Oakland August 20th...finished his minor league season with a .311 average, 148 hits, 23 home runs and 112 RBIs...picked up his first major league hit on August 24th vs. the Yankees Tommy John...belted his first homer the next day off Walt Terrell at Detroit...never really got in the groove with Oakland, batting .189 with 10 hits and 3 homers in 53 at-bats...fielding was a problem at third as he made 6 errors and fielded .833. 1987—consensus American League Rookie of the Year...selected unanimously by the BBWAA, only the second rookie to earn that distinction (Carlton Fisk, 1972)...his 49 homers led the league and tied for the major league high with the Cubs' Andre Dawson...homer total also set a new major league rookie record...set a new Oakland single season standard, eclipsing Reggie Jackson's 47 hit in 1969...also topped the major leagues with a .618 slugging percentage, which also set an A's record...had at least 12 RBIs in each month of the season and 20 or more in 4 months...his RBI total the third best in the AL...finished sixth in the AL MVP voting...had a 5-homer spree in Detroit May 8-10th...in 3-game series at Cleveland June 26-28, hit 5 homers, knocked in 7 runs and scored runs in 9 consecutive at-bats...named to the AL All-Star team for the game in Oakland...had 33 homers with 68 RBIs at the break...tied major league rookie homer record of 38 August 11th at Seattle with a solo shot off the M's Mike Moore...set the new mark with his 39th homer in Anaheim August 14th, a 2-run homer in the 6th inning off the Angels Don Sutton. 1988—finished second on the club to Canseco with 32 homers and 99 RBIs...homer total of 32 was third best in the loop and RBI total was 8th best...back stiffness caused Mark to miss 9 of the A's last 16 games and his chance at 100 RBIs for the second consecutive season...named as the AL's starter at first base in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...more than a third of his RBIs pulled the A's into a tie or put them ahead...hit .333 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a homer and 3 RBIs...recorded one of his greatest career moments when he homered off Jay Howell in the 9th inning of Game 3 in the World Series...the blast gave the A's a 2-1 victory...it was Oakland's only win in the Series and Mark's only hit in 17 at bats. 1989—led the A's and ranked third in the AL with 33 homers...finished second to Parker on the A's and tenth in the league with 95 RBI's...led the league with a homer every 14.8 at-bats and was second with an RBI every 5.2 at-bats...all this despite spending 15 days on the DL in early April with a herniated disc in his back...after returning missed just 5 games the remainder of the season...hit safely in 7 of the 9 A's post season games...overall hit .343 in the post season with a homer and 4 RBI's...amazingly was the only A's regular not to homer in the Series vs. San Francisco. 1990—became the first man to hit 30 or more homers in his first four full major league seasons...topped the A's in RBI's (108) and games played (156) and led the major leagues in walks with 110...the most by a member of the A's in 8 years (Rickey walked 116 times in 1982)...was second on the A's to Rickey in runs scored with 86...post season numbers were not up to his standards...wound up with 5 hits...all singles...hit .154 in the ALCS vs. Boston with 2 RBI's...and .214 in the Series with no RBI's...earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence at first base...the first member of the A's in five years to win the coveted award...made just 5 errors in 1,429 total chances for a .997 fielding percentage...selected by the fans for the third consecutive season as the AL's All-Star starting first baseman...Mark finished 11th in American League MVP voting. 1991—had his consecutive streak of 30 or more homers end at four years and his .201 average was a career low by 30 points...was again among the top fielding first basemen in baseball...Mac made just four errors in 1,297 chances for a .997 fielding percentage...22 homers was the third best total on the club and his 75 RBI's was fourth best...with 93 walks he finished second to Rickey Henderson on the A's and sixth in the league. 1992—led the major leagues averaging a homer every 11.1 at-bats but a muscle strain in August forced him to miss 20 games and cost him a chance to win his second major league homer title...McGwire's 42 homers second only to the Rangers Juan Gonzalez who homered on the final day of the season to finish with 43...Mark did lead the AL with a .585 slugging percentage...finished fourth to teammate Eckersley in the AL MVP balloting and was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams...also named by UPI as the Comeback Player of the Year...finished the year with a .268 average, 67 points above his 1991 figure...led the A's with 104 RBI as he also topped the club with 29 multi-RBI games...in the playoffs vs. Toronto belted a 2-run homer off Morris in his first at-bat but then finished the post season 2 for his last 19 with 1 RBI...spring training was a good indication of what kind of year McGwire was set for as he led the major leagues in hitting with a .453 Cactus League average...June 10th in Milwaukee a big day in Mark's career as his 22nd home run of the 1992 season off the Brewer's Bosio was the 200th of his career....only four men in baseball history, Kiner, Ruth, Killebrew and Mathews have reached the 200 mark faster than Mark who hit his 200th in his 2,852nd at-bat...that homer also tied his total for 1991...reached the All-Star break with 28 homers and was named to the AL All-Star squad for the sixth consecutive year, it was the fifth straight year he was named a starter by the fans...in the All-Star home run hitting contest belted 12 homers to top everyone and lead the AL All-Stars to an easy win...with 38 homers on August

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1995.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS — Another who returned to the A's organization in 1994 and completed a remarkable comeback...opened the year as a long man in the A's bullpen but by the time of the work stoppage was a key member of the A's starting rotation and wound up with the lowest ERA (2.65) in the American League...signed in the winter as a minor league free agent and came to the A's spring camp as a non-roster player...after an excellent spring was on the A's opening day roster, the first time Steve had been on a major league opening day roster since 1989 with Philadelphia...took the loss on opening day in Milwaukee and in his first three relief appearances covering 6.0 innings Steve allowed 12 hits and 9 earned runs...but after that beginning went 6-3 with a 2.06 ERA the rest of the season allowing just 25 earned runs over his final 109.1 innings...recorded his first win of the year on April 13th vs. Toronto and it was his first major league victory since April 11, 1989...after 14 consecutive relief appearances to open the season he was moved into the starting rotation on May 30th in Toronto...it was his first major league start since June 20, 1989 and although he left with a strained right groin after 3.2 scoreless innings it was the real beginning of his season...including the start in Toronto Steve was 5-2 in his 13 starting assignments with a 1.59 ERA (84.2 IP, 15 ER)...he did not walk a batter in three of his starts and in eight others walked just one hitter...among AL pitchers he finished second to KC's Gubicza by allowing just 2.03 walks per 9.0 innings pitched and the .217 average he allowed AL hitters (just .186 by lefthanded hitters) was the fourth lowest in the loop behind Clemens, Cone and Johnson...to go along with the lowest ERA in the league Ontiveros allowed the lowest slugging percentage (.299) and lowest on-base percentage (.271)...he was an instant success as a starting pitcher going 4-0 in his first six starting assignments...allowed just one earned run in 34.0 innings to lower his ERA from 5.58 to 2.78...the six start stretch included a scoreless string of 24.1 innings where he retired 71 of the 85 hitters he faced...reached the break at 5-2 with a 3.26 ERA and pitched even better in his six second half starts...wound up 1-2 after the All-Star break despite a 1.75 ERA (46.1 IP, 9 ER)...in his six starts after the break the offense was shutout once, scored a single run twice and scored a total of 17 runs...twice he left second half starts in position to win only to wind up with a no decision and his two second half losses were both complete games where he lost 1-0 and 2-1...the first complete game was a 1-0 two hit loss to the Yankees on July 20th at the Coliseum and it was Steve's first complete game since August 9, 1987...the two hitter also tied his career low...in his six second half starts, worked seven or more innings and allowed two or fewer runs five times...in the second half the AL averaged just .180 vs. Ontiveros...his final tally of six wins the second best total of his career exceeded only by the ten he won for the A's in 1987...the club was 8-5 in his 13 starting assignments.

CAREER: 1982—was the A's second round choice, first overall selection in the June draft...was assigned to Medford but after 4 relief appearances was sent to West Haven where he struckout 28 in 27 innings of work. 1983—pitched the full season at Albany (AA) and opened the year in the starting rotation...but was later moved to the bullpen and recorded the first 5 saves of his pro career...named Albany's Pitcher of the Year. 1984—attended his first major league camp and then opened the season at Tacoma....right elbow tendinitis landed him on Tacoma's disabled list April 16th...during his rehabilitation cut a finger on his pitching hand during a rafting accident...on August 8th returned to finish the season at Madison (A) and won 3 of 5 starts. 1985—again opened the year at Tacoma and again elbow tendinitis had him on the disabled list in April...but returned to action by May and was called up to Oakland June 11th after going 3-0 with 2 saves in 15 relief appearances...worked 2 shutout innings in his major league debut at Cleveland June 14th...recorded his first win July 18th at Toronto...was used as a setup man to Jay Howell and in 39 games allowed just 45 hits and 16 earned runs in 74.2 innings for a 1.93 ERA. 1986—spent the season in Oakland...went on the disabled list July 24th with elbow tendinitis and did not return until September 14th...despite the injury recorded a career high 10 saves in 46 games. 1987—opened the season on the disabled list with a strained right shoulder...came off April 24th and after 8 relief appearances made his major league starting debut May 19th vs. New York...picked up his only save on the year May 27th at Toronto as he went into the starting rotation on a permanent basis June 16th...named AL Pitcher of the Month for June after he went 5-0 with a 0.66 ERA in 5 games, 4 starts...allowed just 2 baserunners in tossing a 2 hit shutout at Cleveland on June 28th...the first complete game and only shutout of his career...finished the year with career highs in wins (10), innings (150.2) and strikeouts (97). 1988—spent the year with the A's but after just 9 appearances, all starts, went on the disabled list June 12th with right elbow problems...returned August 2nd to start vs. Chicago but went back on the DL the next day and missed the balance of the season...released on December 21st...that winter had right elbow surgery to shave a bone spur and tighten the elbow. 1989—signed to a minor league contract by Philadelphia February 16th but earned a spot in the Phillies starting rotation after an outstanding spring...won his first 2 starts and was leading the league with a 0.90 ERA after three starts (20.0 IP, 2 ER)...picked up his first major league hit off Pascual Perez April 11th in Montreal...the double knocked in 3 runs...suffered a sprained medial ligament in his right elbow on April 20th and was placed on the 15 day DL...came back June 6th but after three starts went back on the DL June 21st with inflammation of the right elbow...underwent surgery July 20th; Dr. Frank Jobe removed a tendon from his forearm and used it to replace the medial ligament in his elbow (Tommy John surgery). 1990—opened the season on the DL as he continued his rehab from the elbow surgery...first appearance of the season was August 2nd in Clearwater on a rehab...also worked at Reading before he was recalled by Philadelphia September 8th...first major league outing in more than a year came in relief September 13th at Chicago...finished the season with 5 appearances pitching 10.0 innings. 1991—opened the season on the Phillies DL and spent most of his Obtained: Selected by Oakland in the major league draft (Rule 5) from the Richmond roster of the Atlanta Braves, December 13, 1993.

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1995.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS—With the first selection in the 1993 Major League Rule 5 Draft the A's selected Reyes from Atlanta's Triple-A roster and Carlos wound up filling a long relief and spot starter role for the Athletics...made the club after a brilliant spring in which he allowed just two earned runs in 18.2 innings for a 0.98 ERA which led the American League...made his major league debut in Milwaukee April 7th with the bases loaded and no outs and allowed just one of the runners to score...he opened the year with 12 consecutive relief appearances before his first start, May 22nd at the Oakland Coliseum vs. Chicago...after that start vs. Chicago was used in a spot starter role for the rest of 1994 making eight starts in his last 14 appearances...was at his best in his nine starts as he was 0-2 but with a 3.48 ERA (41.1 IP, 16 ER)...in relief was 0-1 with a save and a 4.91 ERA (36.2 IP, 20 ER)...the save came on June 18th at Texas as he induced Juan Gonzalez to pop out to save a one run victory for Briscoe and the A's...best month of the season was June when he was 0-0 with the save and a 1.11 ERA (24.1 IP, 3 ER)...his best start of the year came June 29th at the Coliseum vs. California and Finley...Reyes matched Finley zero for zero for eight innings but eventually left the scoreless game with a no decision after eight innings in which he allowed just two hits...the A's went on to win the game in the 9th inning on a Brosius homer...strained a gluteus muscle on July 17th vs. Boston at the Coliseum and went on the disabled list the next day...returned August 4th and made two more starts before the work stoppage, going 0-1 despite allowing just five earned runs over his final 14.0 innings...allowed just one home run over his last 15 outings (49.1 IP)...the A's were 6-3 in the nine games that Carlos started...he held the league to a .242 average including a .211 mark (30 for 142) by righthanded hitters and a .272 mark (41 for 151) by lefthanded hitters...the 8.0 innings vs. California on June 29th his longest stint and he struckout seven Tigers on June 25th for his season best total...liked to pitch at the Oakland Coliseum as he had a 2.66 ERA at home (40.2 IP, 12 ER) and a 5.79 ERA (37.1 IP, 24 ER) on the road.

CAREER: 1991—signed by Atlanta and spent his first summer of pro baseball pitching at Bradenton of the Gulf Coast League...his 1.77 ERA would have been fifth best in the league but he missed by 2.1 innings of qualifying for the ERA leader board. 1992—split the year between Macon (A) and Durham (A)...after going 2-3 with 2 saves and 57 strikeouts in 60.0 innings at Macon moved to Durham and went 2-1 with 5 more saves...combined at both stops was 4-4 with 7 saves and 90 strikeouts in 100.2 innings. 1993—started the season at Greenville (AA) but moved to Richmond (AAA) in July and finished out the year at Richmond...combined at both stops Carlos appeared in 51 games and was 9-1 with 3 saves...he struckout 87 and walked just 35 in 98.2 innings...after picking up 3 wins and a save in April at Greenville was even better over his final two plus months in the Southern League..went 5-0 with a save and allowed just 11 earned runs in 51.2 innings (1.92 ERA)...made his first pro start May 8th vs. Birmingham and recorded the win pitching 5.0 innings...Carlos earned a mid-July promotion to Richmond.

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1995.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS—22 year-old righthander spent his first full season in the major leagues and, although he had his control problems, won seven games and allowed fewer hits than innings pitched, holding the league hitters to a .250 mark...got out of the gate slow as, after losing May 10th at Detroit, his record stood at 0-4 and he had allowed 27 earned runs over his first 25.1 innings for a 9.59 ERA...but, picked up his first win May 15th at Kansas City and over his final 17 starts of the season was 7-6 with a 5.12 ERA...had three wins in June, two more in July, and then won his final start of the season vs. Texas at the Coliseum on August 7th...in that start vs. Texas also struckout a season high seven hitters as the Arlington, Texas resident had two wins in two starts vs. the Rangers and struckout 12 in 14.0 innings...Todd also recorded two wins vs. the Baltimore Orioles...improved his work as the game went on allowing a .326 average (29 for 89) in the first inning alone...then a .253 mark (100 for 395) for innings one through six and then for every inning from the seventh on he allowed hitters just a .216 average (8 for 37)...on the season walked a team high 89 hitters as he led the American League pitchers in walks allowed per 9.0 innings pitched (6.87)...of the 89 batters he walked 26 came around to score or nearly a third of the runs he allowed...in Todd's seven winning starts he pitched 45.1 innings and allowed 34 hits and 15 earned runs for a 2.98 ERA...in his 16 other starts he worked 71.1 innings and allowed 64 earned runs (8.07 ERA)...Todd was especially effective vs. the A's division foes going 4-0 in four starts vs. the AL West with an ERA of 2.89 (28.0 IP, 9 ER)...the A's were 10-13 in his 23 starting assignments.

CAREER: 1990—turned down a full scholarship to the University of Texas to sign with the A's on July 16...reported to Medford a few days later and made his pro debut with Southern Oregon in the Northwest League on July 22...worked 3.2 innings vs. Bend in front of an overflow crowd...walked 3 and struck out 5...went on to make 5 appearances, all starts, at Southern Oregon before moving up to Madison on August 15...at Southern Oregon was 1-1 with a 1.13 ERA...in 24.0 innings allowed just 10 hits and 3 earned runs while walking 9 and striking out 32...at Madison in 3 games, all starts, was 2-1 with a 3.95 ERA...walked 10 and struck out 17 in 13.2 innings...in addition he also lost one start in the Midwest League playoffs...so for his first season of pro baseball he was a combined 3-2 with a 2.15 ERA in 8 games...in 37.2 innings he allowed 18 hits and 9 earned runs while walking 19 and striking out 49. 1991—in his first full pro season the 19 year-old spent the year at Double-A Huntsville before he made his major league debut in September...in the process Todd became just the fourth teenager to ever start a game for the Oakland Athletics...the first since Tim Conroy in 1978...called up by the A's September 5th and made just one appearance, a start vs. Chicago at the Coliseum September 11th...struck out 5 of the first 6 hitters he faced but White Sox then reached him for five runs in the fifth including a 2-run homer by Fisk. 1992—third pro season for the righthander was interrupted by a right shoulder problem...made 9 starts at Tacoma before he was shut down for the season following a start May 24th...it was diagnosed as a strained right shoulder and Todd spent the rest of the year strengthening and stretching the shoulder at the A's Scottsdale, Arizona complex...spent his two months at Tacoma pitching out of the starting rotation...won his first 3 decisions and allowed just 5 earned runs over his first 20.0 innings for a 2.25 ERA...after just two-thirds of an inning vs. Portland on May 24th was taken out of the game and later that week was sent to Scottsdale for rehabilitation. 1993—rookie righthander opened the year in Tacoma but just prior to the All-Star break he was brought to Oakland and he pitched the second half of the season in the A's starting rotation...at Tacoma in 16 starts was 4-8 with a 5.83 ERA...after his first 10 starts was 1-5 with a 9.00 ERA but over his last 6 starts at Tacoma was 3-3 with a 2.39 ERA (37.2 IP, 10 ER) with 43 strikeouts in the 37.2 innings...made his second M.L. start the day he was called up, July 8th vs. Boston at the Coliseum...wound up losing his first 3 decisions and was 0-3 with a 7.47 ERA after 4 starts...but then put together a 4 game winning streak that started August 1st at the Coliseum with his first major league win and it was vs. the club he grew up watching, the Texas Rangers...carried a no-hitter into the 6th inning vs. Milwaukee at the Coliseum August 16th but a Listach single broke up his bid...after his 0-3 start and a 7.47 ERA was 6-3 the rest of the way with a 4.48 ERA (68.1 IP, 34 ER).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Signed with the Athletics after a brilliant career at Martin High School in Arlington, Texas...as a senior Todd was 11-3 with a 0.97 ERA...had 170 strikeouts and only 34 walks in 101.1 innings...in three varsity seasons was 25-7 with 298 strikeouts in 203.1 innings...after the season was named the National High School Baseball Player of the Year based on his performance both on the mound and in the classroom...academically he maintained a 4.0 grade-point average throughout high school...Todd is single and lives in Arlington, Texas...models himself after the work ethic of Nolan Ryan...earned the Walter A. Haas Community Service Award for his charitable work in Huntsville during the 1991 season.

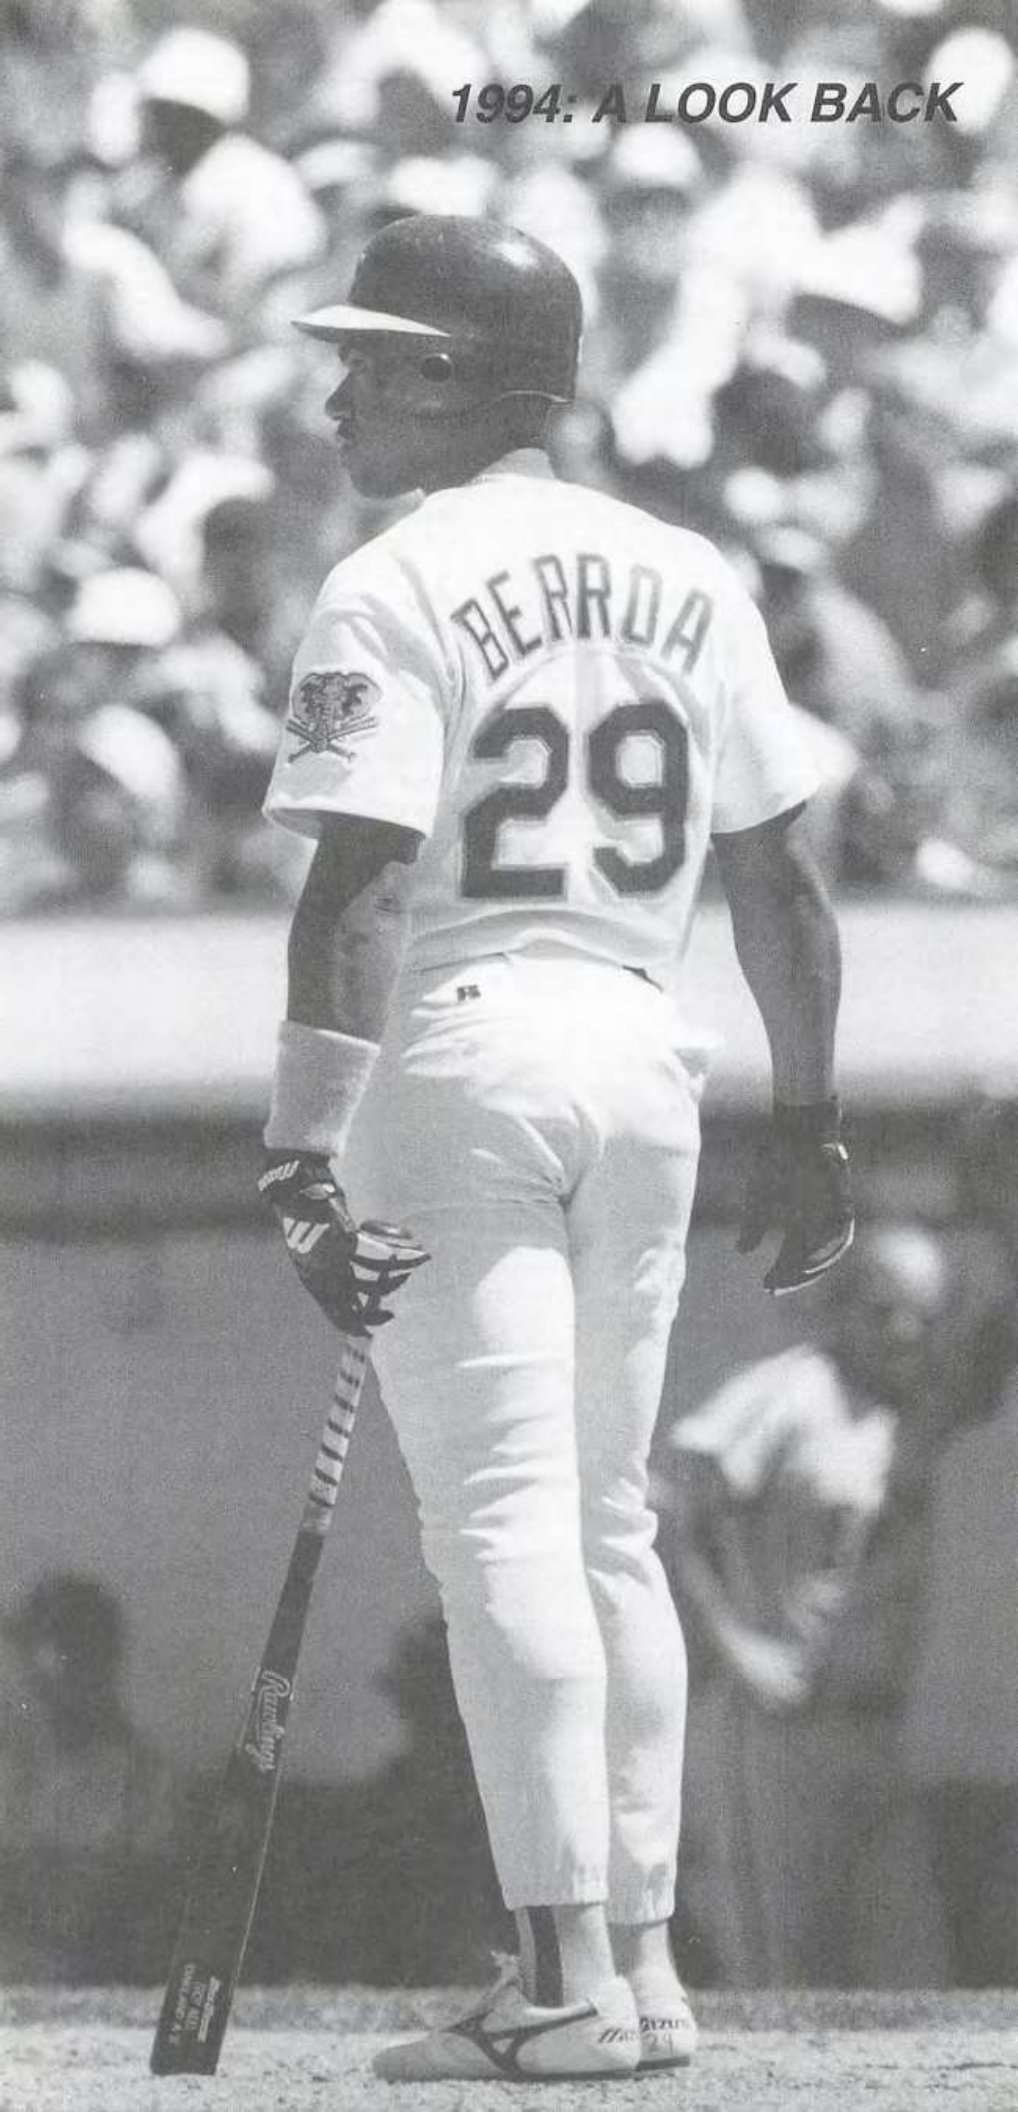
1994: A LOOK BACK



1994 SEASON IN REVIEW

ABOUT THE A'S: The final game of the 1994 major league season was played at the Oakland Coliseum and when the A's and Seattle wrapped it up August 11th the A's were in second place of the AL West, one game behind the leader Texas...the Athletics were under .500 for the second consecutive season at 51-63 but the record does not begin to tell the story of the season...1994 was the 15th consecutive season the A's have spent at least one day in first place as by the conclusion of the first homestand the A's were 7-5 in first place by a game and a half...but then the wheels came off on the next road trip and the club fell under .500 for the balance of the season...the Athletics would not win again in April losing 12 consecutive games, the second longest losing streak in Oakland history...the A's 17 losses in April were a club record and they backed it up with eight wins in May, the fewest in Oakland history...by June 13th the club was at season lows of 24 games under .500 and 12½ games out of first place...but beginning June 14th the A's, under manager Tony La Russa's guidance, began to turn things around...they took the final two games in Chicago to win that series and then swept a four game series in Texas from the first place Rangers to clip six games off the Ranger lead in six days...the A's would win 17 games in June, two more than in April and May combined!...from June 14th to the All-Star break the A's would be the hottest team in baseball winning 20 out of 25 games including a season best streak of eight consecutive games from June 23-July 1...the win on July 1st at Boston pulled the club out of the bottom spot of the AL West for the first time since April 25th and with a win on July 4th at New York the A's moved into second place where they remained the rest of the season...during the 25 game stretch the team hit .277 and the staff ERA was 3.77...the A's came out of the break and lost five of their first seven games to fall five games behind Texas but that was as far as they would fall the remainder of the season as a five game winning streak July 24-29 put them back in the hunt where they stayed until the work stoppage...the A's were 12-15 in the second half yet picked up two games on Texas.

PLAYERS USED: For the second consecutive season the A's used 43 players during the course of the year...20 pitchers and 23 different players wore the green and gold in 1994....eight of the 43 made their major league debut...in addition to the 20 pitchers the A's used three catchers, 11 first basemen, eight second basemen, seven third basemen, five shortstops and ten different outfielders.

A'S PITCHING: 20 different men pitched for the Athletics in 1994 with nine starting at least one game...11 different pitchers won at least one game...the staff ERA was 4.80 which was eighth best in the league and exactly what the average ERA was in the American League in 1994...the staff ERA was 6.03 as late as May 25th but from that date on the staff's ERA was 3.97 to lower it to the final 4.80 mark....with 510 walks the A's led the A.L. in that category for the second consecutive season...with Bobby Witt tossing three shutouts the staff finished with nine to tie Chicago for the most in the major leagues...allowed the league hitters a .257 mark or 16 points below the league average and the second lowest in the loop to Chicago's .250.

THE STARTERS: From Mike Mohler's one start to Ron Darling's league leading (tie) 25, nine different men started a game for the A's in 1994...seven pitchers recorded a win in a starting role...starters recorded 32 of the A's 51 victories on the season and as a group finished with a 4.82 ERA the eighth best mark in the league...but the starters keyed the A's resurgence in the AL West as in the 52 games from June 14th until the end of the season the starters had the best ERA in the league at 3.43 and were 21-15...in the 62 games prior to June 14th the starters record was 20 games under .500 at 11-31 with an ERA of 6.12...starters allowed just a .258 average for the third lowest among all league starting staffs trailing only Chicago (.256) and Kansas City (257).

THE BULLPEN: Tied for the A.L. lead (Boston) with 308 relief appearances, the fourth consecutive season the A's have led the A.L. in relief appearances...the bullpen also led the league in innings (370.0) and strikeouts (293) and was second with 19 relief wins...led by Dennis Eckersley's 19 saves, the pen converted 23 of 35 (65.7%) opportunities...23 saves were tied for eighth in the league with Milwaukee...overall A's relievers combined to go 19-17 with a 4.82 ERA which ranked 10th in the league...Eckersley's 19 saves ranked fourth in the league and four other A's pitchers recorded one each.

THE OFFENSE: The team batting average of .260 finished 14th in the American League and was 13 points below the league average of .273...newcomer Geronimo Berroa led the team and he was the only .300 hitter on the club at .306...the club scored 549 runs for an average of 4.8 per game or nearly a half a run better than the previous season...the A's were one of nine clubs in the AL who were outscored by their opponents...the A's were outscored by 40 runs 589 to 549...over the shortened 114 game schedule rightfielder Ruben Sierra was the team leader in homers (23) and RBI (92)...with 113 total homers the A's finished 11th to Cleveland's 167 roundtrippers...finished fourth in steals with 91 as Stan Javier led the team swiping 24 of the team total...with 417 walks the A's were tied for sixth in the loop with Rickey Henderson's 72 walks topping the club.

THE DESIGNATED HITTERS: Eleven players filled the A's DH spot, led by Geronimo Berroa (44 games) and Troy Neel (35)...Neel out-hit Berroa .292 to .287 but Berroa had 8 HR and 35 RBI to Neel's 7 HR and 21 RBI...in 10 games, Ruben Sierra hit .333 with 4 HR and 11 RBI...A's designated hitters combined to hit .272 (7th in the league) with 20 home runs (7th) and 73 RBI (9th).

PINCH HITTERS: A's pinch hitters combined to go 11 for 78 and their .141 batting average finished 13th in the league...A's did hit three pinch homers to finish in a tie for fourth in the league...Mike Aldrete had two of those to tie for the league lead...Troy Neel had the A's other pinch homer...Aldrete topped A's pinch hitters and tied for second in the circuit with 25 at bats but added just a single to the two homers for a .120 average...A's used 23 different pinch hitters including pitchers Ron Darling and Bob Welch.

A'S FIELDING: A's finished 12th in the league with a .979 fielding percentage...only three teams committed more than the A's 88 errors...Oakland's 105 double plays tied Toronto for seventh in the circuit...catcher Terry Steinbach led A.L. catchers with his .998 fielding percentage, equaling Tom Pagnozzi's NL leading figure...but with 217 more chances, Terry edges Pagnozzi .9984 to .9976...Mike Bordick finished 5th (.974) among AL shortstop's and Scott Brosius ranked 7th (.946) among third baseman...Dennis Eckersley ran his A.L. record streak of games without an error to 466...for the second consecutive year, Ruben Sierra led A's outfielder's with eight assists.

COMEBACKS: The largest deficit erased on the year was a seven run margin vs. Texas on May 16th...the A's tied that game but then lost in 10 innings...five times on the season the A's erased Texas leads of three runs or more to tie the game...three times they went on to win and twice they lost in extra innings...the largest deficit erased that led to a win was on July 24th at the Coliseum when the A's trailed Baltimore 6-0 as late as the 7th inning but went on to a 7-6 victory keyed by Scott Hemond's 8th inning game tying homer and Rickey Henderson's 9th inning dash from third base to score the game-winner on a wild pitch.

THE DISABLED LIST: The A's used the disabled list 14 different times (12 different players)...Brent Gates had two different stints on the DL, missing a total of 47 games...Mark McGwire was also on the DL twice with his heel injury, combining to miss 58 games.

A's AT HOME: For the second consecutive season and just the sixth time in 27 years in Oakland, the A's finished the year under .500 at home (24-32)...won six home series (swept 3), lost 11 (5 by sweep) and tied one...as usual, pitchers fared better at the Coliseum as the A's hit 15 points lower at home (.252) than on the road and the staff ERA at home (4.15) was more than a point better than the road (5.47)...Brent Gates led the A's with a .304 average, Ruben Sierra topped the A's with 11 HR and 43 RBI and Bobby Witt led the pitching staff with six wins.

A's ON THE ROAD: Finished the season 27-31 on the road which included a club record tying 10 game road losing streak from April 19-May 6...A's won nine road series, lost nine and split one...after starting the year 4-17 on road, A's finished up by going 23-14...lost six of the first seven road series but then won seven of the next eight...A's road leaders include Geronimo Berroa with a .333 batting average, Ruben Sierra with 12 HR and 49 RBI and Ron Darling with six road wins.

A's VS. THE WEST: Had their best success in 1994 within the division as the A's were 17-9 against Western Division foes...were 8-5 at the Coliseum and 9-4 on the road...won all three games against California in the Coliseum and were 4-0 at The Ballpark in Arlington...finished above .500 against every team and the A's seven wins against division winners Texas were their most against any club...Oakland was 6-3 against the Angels this year, winning the season series for the eighth consecutive season.

A's VS. THE CENTRAL: A's struggled against the new A.L. Central, winning just 12 of 37 games...played better on the road (7-11) than at the Coliseum (5-14)...lost the season series to every team except Minnesota (5-2)...lost all six games to Cleveland and dropped four of five against Milwaukee, the fourth consecutive season the A's have lost the season series to the Brewers.

A's VS. THE EAST: A's finished the 1994 season with a 22-29 record against Eastern Division opponents...were 11-13 at the Coliseum and 11-16 on the road...lost the season series to each team except Toronto (5-1)...Baltimore (5-7), New York (5-7) and Boston (3-9) were the only teams the A's played a full schedule against.

A's ATTENDANCE: The A's streak of consecutive seasons over 2,000,000 was snapped at six as the A's drew 1,242,692 in 56 home dates for an average of 22,191 fans per game...figure was down 226,074 from Oakland's 56 date figure from a year ago as the A's were one of 17 major league teams to experience a drop off in attendance from a year ago...Oakland finished 12th in the league in attendance...A's drew 1,799,360 on the road, fifth best in the league.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively bt the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

DID YOU KNOW...

That there have been two games in major league history where four pitcher's have combined on a no-hitter and both have come in the Oakland Coliseum. On September 28, 1975, Vida Blue, Glenn Abbott, Paul Lindblad and Rollie Fingers no-hit the California Angels and on July 13, 1991, Bob Milacki, Mike Flanagan, Mark Williamson and Gregg Olson of the Baltimore Orioles combined to no-hit the A's.

RICHARD EDWARD SCOTT

Born: Ellsworth, Maine, July 19, 1962
Height: 6-1 Weight: 175

Infielder in his playing career.

Dick Scott is in his fifth year as manager in the A's minor league organization, his first at Huntsville. In his four previous seasons, he won league Manager of the Year awards at Modesto (1994), Southern Oregon (1993) and Scottsdale (1991) and has also managed at Madison. He was also named Minor League Manager of the Year last year by USA Today Baseball Weekly as the Modesto A's led all of minor league baseball with 96 wins. Dickie played professional ball for 10 years, including his last two with the A's organization at Tacoma. He batted .308 in his last year as a player-coach at the A's Triple-A affiliate. Scott made his only major league appearance with the A's in 1989. He was 0 for 2 in three games but did drive in a run during his two-week stay. He was signed by the A's as a minor league six-year free agent following the 1988 season after spending eight years in the New York Yankee organization. Originally a 17th round selection of the Yankees in the June, 1981 draft, he played at every level in the Yankee chain except the major leagues. After spending his first year in pro ball at Bradenton of the Gulf Coast League, Scott batted .500 in a brief five-game stint with the Yankees AAA Columbus team. He had perhaps his most productive season with Ft. Lauderdale of the Florida State league in 1984, batting .245 with six home runs and 37 RBI. In 1986, he hit .270 at Columbus and he finished his career in the Yankee organization at Albany (AA) in 1988.

Catcher in his playing career.

After making his managing debut last summer at Scottsdale, Tony DeFrancesco will manage the A's short-season single-A affiliate at Southern Oregon in 1995. With the Athletics organization, Tony has served as both a coach at Southern Oregon of the Northwest League and as a roving catching instructor for the minor leagues for two years before taking over as manager at Scottsdale. A 1981 graduate of Suffern (New York) High School where he was a teammate of former A's shortstop, Walt Weiss, DeFrancesco also played three years of baseball at Seton Hall University (South Orange, New Jersey). DeFrancesco returned to Seton Hall to earn a BS degree in Physical Education in 1987. Tony and his wife, Adriene, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona during the winter months.

DID YOU KNOW...

That on June 18, 1993, the A's set an Oakland record by overcoming an eight run deficit to win. Trailing Kansas City 8-0 entering the bottom of the second, Oakland scored twice in the second, six times in the fifth and two more in the seventh for a 10-9 win. The all-time Athletics record is also the major league record, set by the Philadelphia A's on June 15, 1925 against Cleveland. The A's trailed by 12 runs in that game and scored 13 times in the bottom of the eighth to win 17-15.

BAY BRIDGE SERIES

The Bay Bridge series was initiated by the Athletics and the San Francisco Giants prior to the 1982 season. The series was originally a two-game set with the winner, in case of a tie, being decided by either a home-run hitting contest or most hits. In 1989, a three-game series was initiated. In 1995, the 14th annual Bay Bridge series will once again be a three-game format with the first two games to be played at the Coliseum, March 31 and April 1, and the third game at Candlestick Park, April 2.

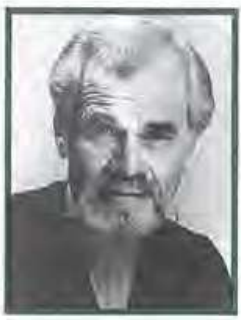
A's ON THE AIR



BILL KING, Director of Broadcast Operations, enters his 15th year of play-by-play for the A's. In addition to his work with the A's, Bill was also the voice of the Los Angeles Raiders and the Golden State Warriors. He worked with the Raiders from 1966 to 1992, broadcasting four Super Bowl's in the process. From 1962 through the 1982-83 season King was the play-by-play voice of the Warriors. His style of broadcasting combines knowledge of the game with a special ability to paint word pictures which bring the radio listeners right into the action. King had his sport broadcast origins in baseball. He played semi-pro baseball as a youngster in the midwest and his first play-by-play job was for a club in Pekin, Illinois in 1948. Bill makes his home in Marin County.

LON SIMMONS begins his 15th year of play-by-play for the A's in 1994. Prior to joining the A's in 1981, Lon was well known in the Bay Area for play-by-play work with the San Francisco Giants and the San Francisco 49ers of the NFL. A native of Southern California, Lon was a three sport high school star in track, football and baseball. He signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies, but an injury cut short his promising pitching career after just two seasons in the minor leagues. THE A's ELEPHANT

Prior to the 1988 season the A's brought back one of the team's most familiar and successful characters from past years — the Athletics' Elephant. After two seasons featuring a more aggressive elephant holding two crossed bats in it's trunk, the old A's Elephant, which brought the A's three straight American League titles from 1988-90 and a World Championship in 1989, will return for the 1995 season. The A's Elephant has been featured in many of the club's promotions and publications. Also, each player wears a special A's Elephant patch on the left sleeve of their uniform.

For 60 years the Athletic Elephant was one of the most popular and colorful logos in all of major league baseball. In 1901 Connie Mack and his Philadelphia Athletics helped form the American League. The following year, New York Giants Manager John McGraw dismissed the A's with contempt, calling them "The White Elephants," implying Mack shouldn't be allowed to spend money without supervision. Mack defiantly adopted the White Elephant as the team insignia, and in 1902, the A's won the American League pennant.

The White Elephant remained the team's mascot until later that decade, when it finally made its way to an A's uniform. Its first appearance was on the team's sweaters. In about 1918, the Elephant finally saw game action when Mack had the pachyderm symbol (in blue with a white "A" inside) placed on the left sleeve of every player.

By 1920, Mack had fully adopted the A's Elephant as the team's symbol. Gone was the traditional "A" on the front of the jersey. In was a blue elephant logo. But after a few poor seasons, Mack decided a change was in order. So, in 1924, the blue elephant was replaced by the white elephant on the team's jersey. The new-look pachyderm seemed to do the trick, as the A's played better ball for the next few years.

In 1928, Mack decided the elephant had worn out its brief welcome on the A's jersey fronts. He replaced it with the familiar "A" on the uniforms, and the A's went on to win two World Championships and an AL crown in the next three years. This resurgence was probably due more to the additions of Foxx, Simmons, Grove, Cochrane, et al., than to the elephant's absence.

That was the last year for the elephant on the A's uniform until 1955, when the A's, now in Kansas City, added an elephant patch to their left sleeves. But when Charlie Finley purchased the team in the early sixties, the elephant mascot was once again sent packing, replaced by, of all animals, a mule. This was the last we saw of this loveable A's mascot until 1988.

Keeping with their tradition of looking to the future without forgetting the past, the current A's ownership decided in 1988 that the time was right to bring back the A's elephant. It has once again proven to be a "good luck" charm for the A's, as since its return the Athletics have won three American League pennants and one world championship.

ANTERIOR - In front of; the front surface of.
ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL) - A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
ANTI-INFLAMMATORY - Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
ARTHROGRAM - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
ARTHROSCOPY - A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
CARTILAGE - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.
CAT SCAN - Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.
CONCUSSION - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
CONTUSION - An injury to muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
DISC - A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion for the spinal column.
FEMUR - Thigh bone; largest bone in the body.
FIBULA - Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
INFLAMMATION - The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.
LATERAL - To the outside of the body.
MEDIAL - To the inside of the body.
LIGAMENT - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI) - Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.
MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL) - Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.
MENISCUS - Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
POSTERIOR - At the back part, or rear of the body.

SHIN SPLINT - A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor, and cannot be defined otherwise.
SPRAIN - Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
STRAIN - Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
STRESS FRACTURE - A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
TENDINITIS - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
TENDON - Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
